

CHILDRENS LITURGY OF THE WORD (CLOW) Grades 1-6

To make Sunday Mass a more positive experience for children, we provide a “Word” experience that is designed to meet the developmental and spiritual needs of the elementary-aged child.

Families come to Mass together, but after the opening song and prayer, first through sixth grade children are invited to come forward and process downstairs for CLOW. During the children’s “Word” service, we focus on only one reading—usually the Gospel reading. This is followed by a child-oriented discussion/homily, prayers of the faithful, creed, and songs. At the beginning of the liturgy of the Eucharist, children rejoin their families in the church.

CLOW is offered during the 11:00AM Mass most Sundays, October through May. There is no registration for CLOW. All children in first through sixth grade are welcome.
